Condition of Bodies After Fire Makes Identification by Friends Difficult

By The Associated Press

SALEM, Ill., March 25.—Three men remained alive today survivors of the one of the nation's worst motor bus accidents which claimed the lives of 20 members of a professional roller skating troupe.

With two others the survivors were hurled through open windows by explosions following the crash of the privately-owned vehicle into a bridge abutment near here yesterday.

Their clothing aflame they stood by helplessly as 15 others burned to death in the inferno of blazing wreckage. At the Salem Community hospital two of the survivors—Mrs. Emily Thomas of Chicago, wife of the driver, and Ted Mullen of Portland, Ore., announcer—died early today.

Three Taken to Hospital

John L. [illegible] Schoolboy Creekmore of Miami, Fla., Dick Thomas of Chicago, the driver, and Don Flanery of Kansas City, Mo., were transferred to a St. Louis hospital today. Creekmore's condition was critical.

Four bodies, one that of a 4 year old child, had been tentatively identified early today. ## MARION LIQUOR RAID DAMAGE TRIAL BEGINS

Testimony Heard in $5,000 Suit of Roy Harris Against K. T. Broadley

STATE INSPECTOR SUED

Search Year Ago and Blow Struck by Officer Basis of Action

Trial of the $5,000 [illegible] of Roy Harris of 984 West Center street against K. T. Broadley of Youngstown, state liquor inspector who is accused by Harris of [illegible] entering his home [illegible] and [illegible] him [illegible] today before a common pleas court jury and Judge [illegible].

The raid occurred Feb. [illegible] 193[illegible] and was one of a series [illegible] Broadley conducted in Marion and [illegible] for [illegible] from the [illegible] of January to March. The [illegible] were.

Was there a search warrant for the Harris home? Were the [illegible] recognizable as officers? Did Broadley strike Harris and if so was he warranted in striking him?

Attorneys Statements

Fred I. Carhart, representing the plaintiff in his opening statement [illegible] the jury, said Broadley, in the [illegible] of Police Chief [illegible] Marks and Patrolman L. F. Kirts, forcibly and violently broke into the Harris [illegible] near the stockyards without a search warrant and then without provocation from Harris struck him on the jaw knocking Harris eight or 10 feet across the room.

Kenneth A. Robinson made the opening defense statement and said he would prove that there was a search warrant and that Broadley had a reason for striking the plaintiff. He denied that the blow was strong enough to knock Harris across the room.

He said the officers arrived about 8:30 at the home and in the darkness proceeded with their raid. A search warrant had been issued for one Frances Lucas, colored, for the address at 984 West Center street, a discrepancy called by the defense a clerical error, the claim being that until about an hour before the raid Frances Lucas had lived at the house raided.

He said evidence would show that Harris had lived on Waterloo street until the day of the raid and on the afternoon of Feb. 8 moved to 984 West Center street with his housekeeper, Miss Hazel Jones.

When Broadley and Chief Mark went to the rear door and Patrolman Kirts to the front door, Kirts [illegible] breaking in first. Harris turned and ran, Robinson said.

In the darkness officers did no know what to expect and we shall prove that the defendant was justified in striking the plaintiff.

At this point J. C. A. Arter, representing the New York Casualty Co. with Attorney Felix Reber, said the company has signed a surety bond for Broadley to protect him in his official activities.

Broadley First On Stand

Broadley was called to the stand by Mr. Carhart and testified he and the other officers were in plain clothes and armed at the raid. In answer to questioning he admitted he had filed a warrant for the arrest of Harris several days after the raid on charges of interfering with a police officer and that the charge was later withdrawn.

He said no liquor had been found at the house after a 15-minute search. He said he broke into the house after he heard Patrolman Kirts enter the front door and heard Harris running. Harris was crouched in the middle of the front room with his hands raised, then in the confusion apparently ran into him, Broadley said.

He admitted striking Harris with the palm of his hand but said the blow was not severe.

John Powell, former clerk of municipal court, was called by Mr. Carhart and said there was no record at the court of any search warrant having been issued for 984 or 994 West Center street either for Harris or Frances Lucas. On cross examination by Pursell Wil[illegible]

GROVE PATTERSON

Can Solve Nation's Problems, Editor Tells Marion Audience

[illegible] American [illegible] was expressed last night by Grove Patterson, editor of the Toledo Blade and [illegible] president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors [illegible] of Marion city and [illegible] at Masonic Temple. Approximately 700 [illegible] was [illegible] of what may be [illegible] circles [illegible]

[illegible] That [illegible] Mr. Patterson spoke [illegible] is the [illegible]

[illegible] the people of America [illegible] that may [illegible] Declaration of Independence [illegible] the finest experiment in [illegible] the world has ever known [illegible] we are [illegible] when [illegible]

We are facing the great crisis [illegible] and my time and the time of our fathers. On one side [illegible] communism and on the [illegible] fascism. However I have an abiding faith in the individual in his desire to be free and his willingness to fight for what he wants despite dictatorships.

Will Solve Own Problems

Given a proper governmental system which offers freedom of opportunity the American citizen will solve his own problems if he has [illegible] a proper system of education, Mr. Patterson said.

I am not concerned with our economic problem, he said. We have sufficient resources to permit us to maintain a standard of living superior to that of any other people in the world. The main problems are political and social with the economic situation a subordinate part.

As an illustration of the adequacy of America's resources and the futility of dictatorial government Mr. Patterson said all the Italian people could be transported to California and at once begin to live on a higher plane than they now have in Italy. Germany could likewise take over Texas and immediately be raised to a higher standard of living, he said.

He described the systems of government in the Fascist countries and in Communistic Russia and said that in none of these is provision made for growth of the individual. If I had to choose, he said, I would choose Communism, there at least an attempt is made to have a full representation of the people. There are some who believe that one of these ways is the way for us to live but I say that we are forgetting the blessings that we have here.

Under a dictatorship a man could not say another government is better and could not attack his own government at all without being thrown into jail, he said.

Referring to the attempt to reform the federal supreme court Mr. Patterson said he does not believe President Roosevelt has any ulterior designs of dictatorship but that those who follow him may have. If the court is limited in its power, if congress is given the right to override a court decision then America is on the road to dictatorship, he said.

It is obvious to everyone that the founders of the Constitution intended that the three branches of government be separate, he said. They should be a system of checks and balances on each other and not be in the control of a single head.

What can education do?" Mr. Patterson asked. It can place new emphasis on the value of representative government in the United States, teach our children what it means and how much it means to a people to be free."

Crime is America's major social

TABER FEARS PRECEDENT

Believes Action Would Lead to Endangering of Rights Constitution Guarantees

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Fred Brenckman, Washington representative of the National Grange, denounced the Roosevelt court bill today as an attempt to intimidate and coerce the supreme court.

Aside from the objections to packing the supreme court in order to influence its decisions against which millions of patriotic citizens are rising in revolt, he said, It is clear that the real issue is one which involves a redistribution of power as between the federal government and the states.

Brenckman was called as the day's first witness before the senate judiciary committee.

Fearful of Precedent

He agreed with the position of Louis J. Taber, master of the National Grange, who testified yesterday. The suggested enlargement of the supreme court, Taber insisted during questioning, might set a precedent which eventually could endanger rights guaranteed by the Constitution.

Sen. McGill, Democrat of Kansas, who has not committed himself on the bill, asked:

Diary of Death Brought Out Of Canadian Wilds

HAVRE ST. PIERRE, Que., March 25.—(Canadian Press)—A sodden diary told today the agonizing story of slow death from cold and starvation by two youthful [illegible] lost in the wilderness of northern Quebec since last Aug.

Death gripping them ever tighter for days prevented Willie Collin, 23, and his brother Edgar, 20, from completing the scrawled record of privation, hunger, illness and pain.

Their bodies, almost skeletons, were found by trappers in an old shack where apparently they camped to wait out a summer storm. Willie, the diary showed, cut his leg and was unable to walk.

Meanwhile as their meager provisions dwindled new storms buried the bushlands and they were trapped by the heavy snow.

Word of their death apparently

WIDE AREA SWEPT BY COMEBACK OF WINTER

Marion Caught in Edge of Snowstorm Coming Out of Midwest; Predict Cold Through Friday.

Snow this morning following a heavy rain last night, was Marion's share of general winter weather reported throughout Ohio and the middle west.

Worst snowstorms of the winter swept sections of the middle west, and caused damage The Associated Press reported. Columbus reported snow and rain this morning following a storm yesterday. In Cleveland traffic was slowed by snow and there were numerous minor accidents on streets made hazardous by a hail storm last night.

Much colder weather tonight and continued lower temperatures Friday are forecast for Marion and vicinity by the federal weather bureau. Continued snow flurries will precede the temperature drop, according to the forecast.

Steady rain yesterday morning and early afternoon and a hard downpour last night measured .78 of an inch, the Marion weather observer reported, bringing the total rainfall since Saturday to 1.37 inches.

The highest temperature in Marion yesterday was 56 degrees, dropping to 31 last night. A year ago the maximum was 65, and the minimum, 40.

Protestant Union Meeting and St. Mary Tre Ore Devotions Among Observances Planned

[illegible] of Marion and vicinity [illegible] urged by all ministers to join in worship at one of the many services Friday and in those tonight in commemoration of the institution of the Lord's supper.

Communion will be observed tonight at the Emmanuel Lutheran church, Evangelical First Church of the Brethren, Oakland [illegible] and Central Christian church. Communion services were conducted at 7 and 10 this morning in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church and there will be a service of evensong, litany, Passion reading and penitential office with choir and music tonight at 7:30. Other churches in which there will be services tonight are the Prospect Street M. E., St. Paul's English Lutheran, First Reformed and Salem Evangelical and Reformed churches. A service planned for tonight at the Forest Lawn Presbyterian church will not be held.

High mass was celebrated at 8 this morning at St. Mary Catholic church by Rev. Father William J. Spickerman, pastor. Forty acolytes were in the procession to the repository. There was adoration of the veiled Host at the repository on a side altar throughout the day. Tonight from 7:30 to 8:30 there will be a Holy Hour service in memory of the institution of the Blessed Sacrament. Church bells were not rung today, nor will they be Friday. At St. Paul's Episcopal church Friday there will be Last Hour devotions from 2 to 3 p. m., consisting of hymns, prayers, silence and addresses on the Passion of Christ.

Residents of Marion and vicinity who speak or understand German will be welcomed at a German Good Friday service at 10 a. m. at the Salem Evangelical and Reformed church. Rev. H. C. Alrenn[illegible], pastor, will deliver a sermon on The Necessity of Jesus' Suffering and will conduct a German communion service. Members of the choir will sing German hymns.

WOMAN AND CHILD HURT IN ACCIDENT

Eight-Month-Old Infant One of Victims of Automobile Collision.

A Marion woman and an eight-months-old child were injured in an automobile collision last night about 8:30 o'clock at State and Fairground streets, according to a police report.

The woman, Mrs. Glenn Sherman of near Marion, suffered bruises on both legs and a cut on her arm, while the child suffered a cut over the eye which required five stitches to close. Both were attended at the office of a Marion physician and released.

The injured persons were occupants of a car driven by Mr. Sherman, which figured in a collision with a car driven by Earl Simpkins of Milburn avenue, according to the report. Sherman was driving east on Fairground street and Simpkins was headed north on State street.

The Simpkins car struck the other automobile on the right side and, after the impact, Sherman's car careened into an electric light pole at the north side of Fairground street, police said. Charles Stapleton of 881 Davids street, also accompanying Sherman, Samuel Kelley of East George street, an occupant of the other car, and both drivers escaped injury.

Mrs. Sherman and the child were taken to the physician's office by Miss Lavina Neidhart of [illegible] Marion and George Harry of [illegible] North State street, who were near the scene when the collision [illegible]

PICKET FORCES TO BE ON DUTY PENDING PEACE

Evacuation Starts After Approval of Truce Order Issued by Lewis.

PARLEY WILL CONTINUE

Demand for Exclusive Bargaining Rights Main Issue To Be Settled

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, March 25.—More than 6,000 striking automobile workers marched in swirling snow today from eight Chrysler corp. plants they have held since March 8 but prepared to establish picket lines until their strike for exclusive bargaining rights is settled.

The sitdowners in the Chrysler Kercheval avenue plant, the last to vote on the peaceful evacuation agreement, gave their approval about 10:15 a. m. and in a few minutes began to leave the factory.

Word of the Kercheval vote was telephoned to the big Dodge plant and 5,000 strikers there marched at once from the plant.

Cheer End of Sitdown

About 1,400 strikers in the Kercheval plant cheered the announcement of plans to end the sitdown phase of the strike but asked for a speech from Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers union, before they gave final assent.

Gov. Frank Murphy at Lansing said the negotiations between Walter P. Chrysler, corporation chairman, and John L. Lewis, head of the Committee for Industrial Organization, on the union's demands would resume this afternoon.

A strike leader announced company police would take charge of all factory gates and the union would establish peaceful picket lines. He indicated some state troopers would be stationed at entrances also as observers.

As the evacuation went forward union officials notified Lewis at Lansing of the developments.

High officials of the United Automobile Workers of America who approved a truce at Lansing, carried its terms to the rank and file in each of eight production plants here.

The agreement on which the strikers voted provided for clearing of the plants and further negotiations between Walter P. Chrysler and John L. Lewis on the union demands for exclusive bargaining rights.

Demand Closed Shop

Pickets shouted closed shop at Homer Martin, U. A. W. A. president, and other leaders as they arrived at the huge Dodge plant which employs 25,000 workers. Three hours were needed there to obtain a favorable vote on evacuation.

Their eyes heavy from loss of sleep, the union officials moved to other plants.

Gov. Frank Murphy, through whose efforts the truce was negotiated at Lansing, termed any talk of revolution in Michigan utter and sheer nonsense and said that as a result of automotive labor developments wages will be higher, conditions better and our people will be more contented than in any state in the union."

5,000 In Dodge Plant

Union officials estimated that 5,000 strikers occupied the main Dodge plant in suburban Hamtramck, 1,400 each the Chrysler Jefferson and Kercheval plants, 650 in the Plymouth factory, 450 in the Chrysler Highland Park plant, and 250 each in the Dodge truck, Dodge forge and De Soto factories.

Gov. Frank Murphy, at Lansing, announced the agreement at the conclusion of a day of conferences with Martin, Lewis, Chrysler, chairman of the corporation's board,

HEART BALM SUIT JUDGMENT UPHELD

Miss Leona Fryman Wins Appeals Court Verdict

Verdict of a common pleas court jury here last April 8, awarding Miss Leona Fryman $2,500 in her $10,000 breach of promise suit against Otto C. Schleintz, has been upheld by the Third district court of appeals at Lima according to official word received today by Clerk of Courts Carl F. Haberman.

Mr. Schleintz had appealed the verdict on grounds that it was not supported by evidence.

"We find that there is competent, substantial and credible evidence to sustain the verdict," the appellate judges said in their notification. It was signed by Judges Charles A. Guernsey, Phil M. Crow and William Klinger.

Miss Fryman contended in her suit that Mr. Schleintz had promised to marry her on several occasions, postponing the marriage each time. She is represented by Homer F. Johnson and Schleintz by J. C. A. Arter.

Movies Prove Stimulus To Children's Reading

BOOKWORM

With open mouthed ecstasy the younger generation is absorbing the books—big books at that—of the New York public library

* * *

This is the second of a series of weekly articles on child guidance and development

* * *

By LYDIA GRAY SHAW
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK, March 25—Instead of competing with books, movies are stimulating children's interest in them, says Anne Carroll Moore, superintendent of the public library's work here with children.

For instance "The Last of the Mohicans," she says, is having a tremendous ... of the library.

Boys who have se... come to the library to read the book and see how much alike they are. Almost without exception they say the book is ... picture better.

Like History

Children who see "Beloved Enemy" are curious to know more about the turbulent life in Ireland during the da... it pictures.

Then sometimes is it the character, as with "Mary of Scotland," who provokes their interest. So they draw heavily on historical sources.

News of the week in the movies arouses their interest in current affairs—and they become newspaper conscious.

"Anthony Adverse" is their latest request, but it is not granted.

Miss Moore ... at a recent statement that 1? children are at the movies for every child at home reading a book.

"I should like to know just how the author of this questionnaire got his figures," she said.

More Curious Today

She admitted that a small percentage probably did not make a practice of reading.

But our library records show that the greater proportion of children at least have been definitely stimulated in their reading by the movies.

A child's taste in books runs to both the imaginative and the factual, says the superintendent, the latter actuated by the schools' demand for accurate information.

Encyclopedias are always popular.

Then too children today have a greater curiosity than those a generation or ago and demand books that tell why a machine works and who works it.

Fairy Tales Popular

But when they are not seeking facts they are launched into a make believe land of the fairy tale. Grimm and Andersen are devoured just as eagerly as a generation back.

Every so often a hue and cry is raised by psychologists over the effect of such fantastic tales, says Miss Moore. But while an exceptionally sensitive child may have nightmares after reading "Jack the Giant Killer," the majority realize it is only a fairy tale and suffer no ill effects.

Fairy tales are to children what novels are to adults.

Many New Volumes Covering Wide Range of Reading Included in Marion Public Library's Spring List

By EDNA S. DUTTON

On the spring reading list of the Marion public library are a number of new volumes of interest to the patron of biography, romance, fiction, and the mystery story which were placed in circulation this week.

Among those holding the top place are the O. Henry collection which offers such stories as "Dead Man" by James M. Cain, "Total Stranger" by James Gould Cozzens, "Escape from the Mine" by Walter D. Edmonds, "Honor" by William Faulkner and numerous others by equally interesting writers together with "William Holmes McGuffey and His Readers" and "Old Favorites from the McGuffey Readers." The first of the McGuffey books is a biography of the famous author and educator and a running story of his readers and the second is a collection of selections from the readers. Sharing in interest in this group is "The Story of the Gems," by Herbert P. Whitlock. The book reveals [illegible] personal and ornamental stories [illegible] where they are found, how they are identified and by what nations they are cut.

Story of the "Bounty"

[illegible] and final death of [illegible] in "The Bounty Trilogy," by Charles Nordhoff and James Norman Hall. The authors tell the story of the "Bounty" in three acts. The first volume, "Mutiny on the Bounty," gives an unforgettable picture of the British navy at the time of Nelson. "Men Against the Sea," the second volume is the story of the 19 loyal men who, with Captain Bligh at the helm were set adrift in the open boat [illegible] "Pitcairn's Island" is the [illegible] of [illegible] mutineers who escaped capture and, fleeing from the world with their native wives found refuge on the loneliest island of the Pacific.

Another story of private and business life is found in "The Sound of Running Feet," by Josephine Lawrence, author of "Years Are So Long" and "If I Have Four Apples." From the corporation president's hushed private office, the stenographer's desk, and the janitor's box behind the furnace the reader follows [illegible] homes, men, women, husbands, wives and parents whose hearts are filled with the hopes and fears of the present work-a-day world.

Another Hilton Narrative

Sharing the fiction bracket is James Hilton's "We Are Not Alone." Following the Hilton tradition of having his reader read between the lines the author paints a heart-warming picture of a pipe-smoking, untidy, detached, absent-minded little man in his late 40s, in the person of a little English doctor who serves his patients with compassion and skill. Quite in contrast is his wife, Jessica [illegible], prim daughter of a [illegible]. The plot deepens with the advent of Leni, a German dancer who later becomes the companion to the couple's unpleasant offspring, and with the murder of Jessica. Accused of the murder, the little doctor amazes the reader with his apathy toward his fate in view of the high value he has placed on life. The author wrote the popular volume "Good-bye, Mr. Chips."

Esther Forbes writes of the early days of the Massachusetts Bay colony in "Paradise," an historical romance of three centuries ago. Jude Parre, master of Paradise, is the center of a huge country household attended by his two sons, Fenton and Christopher, and three daughters, Jael, Agnes and [illegible] little Hagar. The friendly Indians dwell in a settlement nearby and Jude Parre, sitting in the stone hall of Paradise, administers his benevolent justice over villagers and savages alike. The author carries on the story of the family with a great skill and depicts a background startlingly different from that of Puritan tradition. Great feasts, gay costumes and convivial hospitality characterize the time. The scenes take the reader into the parlors of Boston, its churches, on its waterfronts and finally into the wild action of King Philip's War.

New Novel by Horgan

Paul Horgan, author of "No Quarter Given" and "The Fault of Angels," has a new story "A Lamp on the Plains." Danny Milford, a waif, crawls miserably out of a boxcar in a little ugly town in New Mexico, and goes foraging for food. The year is 1918 and the wartime hysteria is at its height. Danny's mother, an itinerant evangelist has been stoned by a mob in Arizona for talking pacifism, and dies the following day on a train. Danny is caught thieving and finds shelter with his captor, a mechanic in a filling station. His later friends include Earlene and Myrtle, waitresses at the station lunchroom, Professor W. Burlington, imposter and rogue and a wealthy rancher who casually adopts him and sends him to school with his own sons.

In the lighter vein of fiction is to be found Joseph Lincoln's story, "Great Aunt Lavinia," another Cape Cod story, and a new Kathleen Norris story, "Bread Into Roses." The Norris novel is a story of Susannah Farjeon, from the moment in the Far East when her dreams of happiness seemed shattered, through days of wealth and power to the time when she found love and peace. Upon her return to America after her father's death in Peking she met Alec, who turned out to be something entirely different from the unimportant mining engineer she thought, and later into her life came another man, understanding and charming.

"Light Women" by Zona Gale, author of "Miss Lulu Bett," introduces the reader to Mitty, gay and light-minded, sophisticated about things that do not matter and missing the things that do. Other characters in the story are Nicholas, whose wife Mitty is supposed to be, his father, slow, honest, respected, Bella, his mother who thinks she dominates the home, Anne, the crippled sister deserted by a worthless husband, Billy, 18, who wishes to escape the small town and Genevieve, the conventional married daughter.

For the mystery reader and tired business man the list includes "Cards on the Table," by Agatha Christie, "Mr. Pinkerton Has the Clew," by David Frome, "The Door Between," by Ellery Queen, and "Mustang Mesa," by Peter Field.

THE COMMUNION

Thursday in Holy Week, March 25. With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you [illegible] Luke [illegible].

We read that [illegible] his ministry [illegible] went into the [illegible]

[illegible] is probably the source of [illegible] all the [illegible]

In times [illegible] to fall back on familiar thoughts and acts. New [illegible] and new modes [illegible] that will not see us through our worst days. There [illegible] practices of religion have [illegible] habitual [illegible] thought [illegible] Last Supper. New meanings were already pressing into the [illegible] act and since then [illegible] the interpretations of the Sacrament have been many. But none of us should despise and none of us can afford to dispense with the [illegible] of strength to be had from the most well known words and ceremonies of religion. Only that which is utterly familiar can bear life's stern storm and stress.

Prayer: We thank thee, our Father, for the life and knowledge which thou hast made known to us through Jesus thy servant. As this broken bread was scattered (as corn) over the mountain and being gathered together became one, so may thy church be gathered together from the ends of the earth into thy kingdom. Amen.

(From the Teaching of the Twelve Apostles circa 100 A. D.)

The Debate Continues

[illegible] that Roosevelt [illegible] to change the court and [illegible] the other side [illegible] errors [illegible] a period of belief in [illegible] freedom to decide popular issues.

It [illegible] to the extent that [illegible] there is nothing to fear from the [illegible]. The danger now as it was six weeks ago when the plan was introduced is that the independence of the judiciary may fall victim to the already jeopardized independence of the legislature.

On Record

The [illegible] school disaster proved how handy fingerprints can be when some of the victims' bodies were identified by prints taken last summer at the Dallas exposition. Friends of the idea are trying to make capital of the incident to popularize fingerprinting as a means of identification.

Their argument is clear and logical. Yet the fact is it falls on many deaf ears for the simple reason that Americans still get stubborn over the idea of making themselves material for filing cases. The social security board has encountered this trait of unsocialized individualism. The federal bureau of investigation which is trying to build up a fingerprint file has been handicapped by it.

There are many explanations for it, some of them far from [illegible]. But the most important reason is the uneasy fear of being checked up involuntarily, something which goes a long way toward explaining why it will take years of education [illegible] Americans consent to the careful [illegible] that is standard practice in most European countries.

Volunteers

[illegible] aerial bombing, gas and liquid fire [illegible] the only modern thing about [illegible] warfare.

There has grown up a new legalism too [illegible] avoid [illegible] complications [illegible] formal declarations of hostility [illegible]. They simply seize [illegible] to start fighting.

Another aspect of the same thing is [illegible] soldier in the Spanish civil war [illegible] Italian [illegible] fighting with [illegible] against [illegible] in Spain [illegible] sent to Spain [illegible] [illegible]

On Nebraska!

[illegible]

[illegible] because Nebraska [illegible]

As [illegible] for Nebraska [illegible] it has made [illegible] real improvement [illegible] government [illegible] it could do [illegible] some reason to believe [illegible] will do better if its simplified [illegible] system is given half a chance.

Landis Quoted

[illegible]

[illegible] such a claim will [illegible] the capital that law will [illegible] the concept of property and its [illegible] in its industrial and corporate [illegible] economic pressure of this type and in part perhaps in the rapid [illegible] devices, concepts and mechanisms to meet the needs out of which this type of economic pressure has been born.

It will be noticed that Mr. Landis uses the words "faithful", "tranquil", "traditional", namely that said strikes merely have behind them an air [illegible] of legal justification which can be taken to mean of course that because they do not possess such legal justification on precedent, they may now be declared legal as a necessary part of a system of social and economic justice.

In Europe of course Russia, Italy and Germany have distinctly modified the traditional concepts of property. Private property as an institution has been under attack in America where many so-called liberals think the state should own various businesses outright or compete with existing private businesses till the property of the private owners is rendered worthless—a form indeed of gradual confiscation.

Substance Of Wagner Act

[illegible]

[illegible] Landis [illegible] Roosevelt [illegible] supreme court and [illegible] members of the court. It is but another way of saying that when a [illegible] supreme court the sit-down strike is an economic weapon will some day [illegible] in a statute.

What [illegible] overlooked [illegible] is that the right to strike and the right to picket [illegible] where prohibition has [illegible] has not given unlimited license [illegible] and that the simple use of physical violence or physical intimidation to attain an economic end has never before been sanctioned by law or by the courts and yet it exists as a weapon largely because of an alliance between labor and the politicians. Governmental bodies have been captured by pressure groups through political power. This is not a trend that looks for the solution of difficulties in fair and equitable interpretations of laws or constitutions but looks to a growth of lawlessness and mob rule. Concepts of law, new and old, are worthless unless administrative officers enforce existing law.

To say that the right to strike has been universally recognized or that picketing has been sanctioned is to say that all the incidental violences connected with strikes have also been sanctioned. Actually violence and intimidation as practiced by thugs and strike breakers hired by union labor has no more backing in law than the hiring of thugs and strike breakers by employers, and in modern labor warfare there is unfortunately plenty of it on both sides.

What Mr. Landis and his colleagues in the new deal are working toward is a new definition of property. They want property affected with a public interest. When that is attained they will want government to determine the uses of property. Norman Thomas and the Socialist party will go along with them a considerable distance on this and so will the Communists too.

Power in Plants?

AN INEXHAUSTIBLE source of power which would be derived from plants to offset depletion of oil and coal supplies was forecast by Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, associate professor of chemical engineering at Yale university.

This power would be obtained throughout the apparently simple but as yet unexplainable process of photosynthesis in a plant. It is through this process that plants take water obtained through the roots and carbon dioxide breathed in by the leaves and in the presence of the sun's energy and chlorophyll, the green pigment, make the chemical compound formaldehyde and release oxygen.

Furnas said it is theoretically possible to take this material (formaldehyde) and the oxygen of the air and use them to give back the water and carbon dioxide plus electrical energy. [illegible] has accomplished this so far but Furnas points out that if the physicist and chemist can bring about both these reactions on a wholesale scale they will have stored solar energy in a chemical compound which can be used as needed.

Sunlight Possibilities

Furnas said: "The best that has been done is to convert the formaldehyde in alkaline solution into formic acid with the production of minute amounts of electrical energy. Whatever [illegible] the complete oxidation process [illegible] the way toward the direct utilization of sunlight to give electricity [illegible] the ultimate solution of the power problem for all time to come."

Federal Income Below Estimates

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, March 25—A matter of [illegible] importance [illegible] income [illegible] on the [illegible] of the old [illegible] thing.

Imagine therefore the [illegible] embarrassment of Mr. Morgenthau, keeper of the federal purse. His income for this first quarter year is seriously below what he expected. How much is a matter of debate. Estimates ranging from $100,000,000 to $300,000,000 are being published. When the books are added about three weeks hence the amount is very likely to hit $130,000,000 at least. This is the best inside guess to be made by the best experts now.

Spokesmen are inclined to [illegible] Mr. Morgenthau about this especially because he has been so proud of the exactness of his estimates in the past. If that were all it involved the problem would not be very serious. He has [illegible] ways of raising money than Poor [illegible]. However the trouble seems to be deeper.

For some reason or other the taxes levied are just not raising the money expected.

Rich Not Soaked

Officials will tell you it is too early to draw deductions. The final figures are not available. It will be months before the collectors will be able to tell who did not pay as much taxes as expected and why.

But it is not too early for officials to [illegible] suspicion that for one thing their soak-the-rich tax bill is not soaking the rich. Evidence strongly hints that the corporation surplus tax bill passed last year is a Swiss product which may have nearly as many holes as cheese. Certainly something seems to be very sadly wrong with the way the rich are evading and it probably is the administrative enforcement provisions.

Diagnosis

In the first place Mr. Morgenthau's estimators seem to have made excellent guesses. The business improvement in 1936 was just about what they calculated. Economically they seem to have had justification to expect the amount of revenue they set for [illegible]. The trouble therefore can be traced not [illegible] to economic but to revenue causes.

Beyond that lies a field of speculation but some very interesting tangible evidence is available in the published revenue receipts by states. These show that income receipts between March 1 and 20 were just about double those of last year in all the states except the wealthiest.

That is, Alabama taxpayers paid $2,000,000 this year and $1,000,000 last; [illegible] Arizona [illegible] instead of [illegible]; Arkansas $1,200,000 instead of [illegible]; but Massachusetts paid only [illegible] $140,000,000 in 1936. Michigan [illegible] instead of [illegible] and New York, the wealthiest state, paid only [illegible] per cent more than last year while Wyoming increased over 100 per cent.

Legal Loopholes

To put it another way, the largest increases in revenue now are coming from states where there are not many taxpayers wealthy enough to hire lawyers to tell them how to avoid the new tax reform law.

For some time it has been evident that methods of getting around the law were being daily discovered. Some attorneys are understood to have worked out methods of stock distribution of dividends whereby neither the payer nor the payee is considered liable for the tax. Treasury authorities seem not to be excited by these and other known and unknown practices. They say they will make somebody pay eventually. Presumably the Democrats as well as the Republicans.

Small corporations in which holdings are centered in one family are said to have dissolved and created partnerships, thus avoiding the flat corporations tax. In such cases as this the device is unquestionably [illegible] and certainly no Democrat and perhaps few Republicans will be made to pay.

Unbalancing

The development has again raised the question whether there will be a tax bill this session. If the final official figures disclose that the loophole must be faced and closed (if they can be) a corrective measure will have to be passed before congress quits. It cannot be delayed until congress returns next January.

Many authorities do not see how the treasury can get away from it despite the antipathy of congress to consider a tax bill of any character. The congressmen probably can be made to see that it is better to consider a tax bill this year than next when they will be up for reelection.

Also there is the question of further deficit financing and increase of the debt. Some experts believe that the revenue goose, sitting on the social security and unemployment trust fund, will lay a few extra golden eggs and obviate the difficulty. However any plan for retirement of the $1,500,000,000 of open market debt will have to be dropped.

A Playboy Settles Down

BY O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, March 25—Not all the Broadway playboys stick to their frolicking. There is the young millionaire Phil Plant for instance who cut quite a dido along the blazing boulevard. There were few hot spots where he did not appear like a sudden ejaculation some time during the evening.

He had all the trappings of the golden spoon birthright, yachts, penthouse and Long Island villas and his caprices were as well known in the gay capitals of Europe as in New York and Palm Beach. But he had his fling and very [illegible] called it a day.

With his bride he is somewhere in the jungles of Africa safaring in an auto trailer. And the frivolous strain has congealed into a [illegible] flair. Among other things he will collect specimens of wart hogs and ostriches for the American Museum of Natural History.

Thus he becomes the pioneer in trailing through the jungle in a trailer. And may revolutionize the mode of African travel. His trailer is equipped [illegible] shower bath, copper screens and all the newest wrinkles of refrigeration.

From a Moscow letter: Stalin is one dictator who fears death [illegible]. Perhaps all do. Anyway [illegible] precaution when he goes from his palace 25 miles away to the Kremlin [illegible] daily and sometimes two or three times weekly he has a convoy of four fine American cars. They are manned by 15 Russians dressed in khaki who resemble him as closely as possible. Stalin varies his position each time by occupying a front seat in car No. 1 today, tomorrow a back seat in the last car, etc. Never a regular place so in order to get him 15 others might have to be slain. Brave boys those dictators. And so thoughtful of their associates.

One of the most extravagantly jeweled ladies in the New York scene is a former Kansas City Mo. girl. Now Mrs. Margaret Wenner Gren, wife of the celebrated Swedish munitionist Axel Wenner Gren who visits America with her about twice a year. The Wenner Gren jewel collection is known in Europe as one of the largest outside of royal houses. There is a string of emeralds the size of walnuts. Also a tiara of black pearls and a solitaire ruby the size of a bird's egg. Also diamond necklaces strung with 14 carat stones.

There is a shopworn story that still makes the rounds—I heard it again last evening. It concerns an American heiress at a hoity toity ball featuring an equally hoity toity orchestra leader. A young guest [illegible] offered the leader a $50 tip to play while he danced with the heiress "I Found My Million Dollar Baby in a Five and Ten Cent Store." Said the orchestra leader: "Sorry but I have been paid $100 extra not to play it."

NEW TRUCK MODELS ON DISPLAY HERE

McDaniel Motor Co. Showing Three Units of International Motor Line.

The announcement of a new line of International motor trucks was made today upon the arrival of three of the models at the McDaniel Motor Co. garage at 2?5 West Center street. The complete lines consist of 26 models on 77 wheelbases, with gross vehicle weights ranging from 4,000 to 62,000 pounds.

They include the conventional four-wheel units, six-wheelers, with both dual drive and trailing axle, and cab-over-engine types. The numerous wheelbases, a variety of rear axle ratios, two-speed rear axle and multiple-speed transmission permit an accurate selection for special hauling needs, representatives of the company pointed out.

The new trucks are built much on the line of passenger cars with the designers striving for better riding qualities, additional power and a general streamline effect. The three trucks which have already arrived here are of 172, 156 and 125 inch wheelbases. All have solid steel cabs, and designers claim clearer vision through the deeper and wider windshields and partially as a result of the small corner posts.

Other trucks are expected in the near future for display use, but the three which were among the first to arrive have been sold and are being prepared for delivery.

Says Varicose Veins Can Be Reduced At Home

Prove It At Small Cost

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins or bunches, as good advice for home treatment as any friend can give, is to get a prescription known as Moone's Emerald Oil.

Simply ask Sargent's Pharmacy, Henney & Cooper's, Druggists, or your druggist for an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil and apply night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you should notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are no longer burdensome. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that it helps simple swellings due to strain to disappear. —Adv.

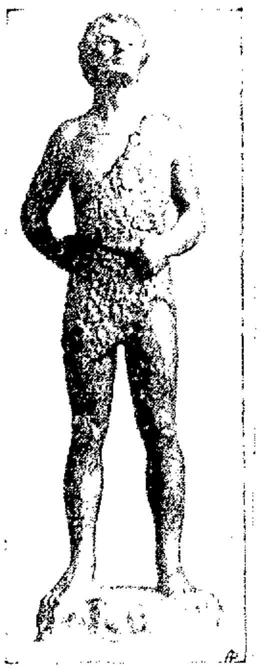
N. Y. SCULPTOR SHOWS CHRIST IN NEW PORTRAYAL



By The Associated Press

NEW YORK—A sharp contrast to the soft, meek faced deity generally visualized by Easter worshippers is Stuart Benson's Christ. Benson, who will make a twice lifesize bronze from the study (above) exhibited recently at the Ferargil galleries in New York, portrays Christ as an ordinary man, a workman.

He has short hair because long locks would fall into the eyes of a carpenter at work; a crude, homemade garment of sheepskin because long white robes would be expensive and unsuited for work. The face is noble, but strong and calm; the line of the jaw virile and determined.

For verification, Benson, a New York sculptor, quotes the sayings of Jesus to the effect that He was as other men and that what He did other men could do also. The ethereal, effeminate conception of Jesus, says Benson, does not appeal to the average man or body.

The Marry-Go-Round

BY HELEN ROWLAND

TAKE IT FROM EVE

Reno would suffer a frightful depression if men fell in love when they were rational and cool-headed, instead of in moments of vertigo or temporary dementia.

* * *

Nothing makes a woman feel so alluringly "feminine" as to hear herself rustle when she walks in one of the new taffeta petticoats.

* * *

A nice boy can't be too careful, now that the dangerous season is at hand and every other girl he meets is after just one thing—a wedding ring.

* * *

All good business women are cautious in their investments; but it's pretty hard to convince one of them that the money spent for facials and permanents doesn't draw the most interest.

* * *

When love dies a woman likes to give it a beautiful burial, but the man always insists on spoiling everything by bringing the "next woman" to the funeral.

* * *

Modernists may be right in urging girls to assert their "rights" and do the "proposing." But you'll find proposing to a man like working a towing machine; it's wonderful practice—but where do you get?

* * *

A gentleman, according to a masculine cynic, is one who uses the butter knife when he breakfasts alone at home.

* * *

You never can tell what will break a woman's heart or get her goat. But calling her by an unflattering nickname will frequently do both.

* * *

Love is that sudden revulsion of feeling which makes a man imagine that one kind of girl can make him happy for life—simply because he happens to be temporarily bored with the other kind.

OUST THAT COLD

—Roots and All—Give It No Chance to Sprout Anew!

Take no cold lightly! The so-called "common cold" is often the start of more serious trouble—flu and pneumonia, for example.

Treat a cold to rout it, not merely to subdue it.

Depend on no halfway measures. A cold, being an internal infection, must be got at from the inside.

Treat a cold with a cold preparation, not with a medicine good for all kinds of ailments.

The wise treatment is Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine.

Expressly For Colds!

Bromo Quinine is a cold tablet made expressly for the treatment of colds.

It is also internal treatment and of four important effects.

First, Bromo Quinine opens the bowels, a desirable step in the treatment of colds.

Second, it checks the infection in the system, a vital step.

Third, it relieves the headache and fever.

Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

The Action Called For

These are the four effects a cold calls for and in Bromo Quinine you get them in the form of a small tablet.

Bromo Quinine tablets now come sugar coated as well as plain.

The sugar coated are exactly the same as the regular, except that the tablets are coated with sugar for palatability.

Be wise—the minute you feel a cold coming on, go right out and get a package of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine.

JOBS GO BEGGING IN SKILLED LINES

Work Waiting for Those Who Can Qualify, Farm Openings Increasing

Some types of jobs are going begging in Marion and other Ohio cities, [illegible] office of the Ohio State employment service, Fred F. Scheiff, Marion office manager, said today.

This paradoxical situation in a period when hundreds of persons are seeking work is explained in the need for workers especially skilled in certain lines, Mr. Scheiff said.

He pointed out skilled workers who retired during the depression years were not replaced by young men due to dullness of factories and thus as a result of the recent pickup in employment the skilled worker is at a premium.

Communications from other offices in the state list demands for such persons as a biochemist who must have a Ph. D. degree in chemical research in poultry diseases, a general factory superintendent to take entire charge of a foundry and machine shop, a salesman and floor manager for a hardware establishment, an assistant advertising account executive, two designers, mechanical engineers and a designer of automatic machinery.

Mr. Scheiff said the local demand for workers now is including a number of skilled farm workers who can take a hand in the spring work and continue through the summer and fall.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 25.—[illegible] Ohio liquor board member, said today enforcement of the controversial department regulation banning the use of outside signs and window displays advertising beer or liquor would be considered by the board within a few days.

Provisions are:

Dr. H. [illegible] of the Salem hospital staff said [illegible]

States Attorney Ward Holt said today he had conducted a partial investigation of the accident which he [illegible] to be the blowout of the right front tire. He said he would [illegible] examination [illegible] wreckage—a smoking pile of [illegible] metal.

Coroner [illegible] B. Carrigan [illegible] Marion county said an inquest will not be held for several days.

William T. Frake, member of the Salem fire department, described the accident as "the worst thing I ever saw." (Frake is an overseas World war veteran.)

"When we arrived at the scene," Frake said, "the driver of the bus was rolling on the ground pleading for help.

"Flames were terrific.

"We were only able to take out bodies with pike poles under protection of water. Several of the bodies were still in a sitting position."

Don Flanners of Kansas City wept today as he described the plight of his helpless companions.

He crawled through one of the windows but was seriously burned in his [illegible] attempt to rescue Miss [illegible] Hill, his fiancee.

"She cried to me twice," he sobbed. "I finally found her [illegible] tried to pull her out but she was pinned and I couldn't move her."

Heavy wind tore down the sugar House [illegible] on Chardon [illegible] headquarters for the annual maple festival. The building was completed only yesterday and was constructed with 3000 feet of rough lumber.

Crippled communication in isolated communities and paralyzed highway transportation provided evidence of the winter's worst snowstorms in sections of the middle west.

While wind-whipped snow into big drifts in Minnesota and the Dakotas, rain, sleet, [illegible] and freezing temperatures plagued a wide expanse of the mid continent.

Drifts in Minnesota ranged up to 10 feet. Snow plow crews rescued 30 bus passengers marooned near Faribault. Schools were closed at Northfield. Chicago got a mixture of bad weather including rain, sleet and snow.

Tornadoes swept parts of Alabama and Kentucky. Two were dead at Ozark, Ala., and at least 20 persons were injured in a twister at Winchester, Ky.

A dust blizzard descended on Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and the Texas Panhandle while a combination of dust, snow and rain produced "Red Snow" at Ames, Ia.

"My very dear parents," read a scribbled farewell by one of the brothers in the last days of the painful starvation, "before I become too weak to write any more I want to tell you that the date that [illegible] entered in my book will show we could move no longer. Our souls are in the hands of God."

A [illegible] note from Edgar on Jan. 25 told how Willie died the night before.

"Jan. 26—My very dear parents and friends, it is Edgar whose sad duty it is to tell you that the good blessed Virgin came from Heaven last night to take away my dear brother Willie about 11 o'clock.

"Dear God, I don't know what to do with myself. I can't sleep now. I have eaten only once in three days. I can hardly cut wood because I'm just able to lift the ax. Oh God, maybe in a few days the Blessed Virgin will come for me too.

"Luckies don't catch your throat—they're easy and smooth"

"The thing I prize most is my reputation for saying what I think. Here's what I sincerely think about smoking—it's one of the greatest pleasures in the world, but it can be utterly spoiled by throat irritation. My job's tough on the throat and I have to be careful to keep my voice clear. Long ago I found that Luckies are easy and smooth and don't catch your throat. That means everything in a job like mine. Next time you hear the usual 'Cheerio' at the end of my broadcast, you can picture me reaching for a Lucky an instant later."

Boake Carter

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Mr. Carter verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.

Neglect of Heart

[illegible]

[illegible] symptoms are [illegible] change in the blood vessels of the heart wall itself.

The sufferer complains of a feeling of pressure, gripping or burning in the region of the heart. [illegible]

As a rule [illegible] comes on such as walking or climbing [illegible] more likely to occur after [illegible] in which he lacks [illegible] even while resting.

In most [illegible] the pain appears under the middle or upper part of the chest. Occasionally it may go as high as the base of the neck, giving a sensation of strangling or choking. [illegible] perfectly motionless. The pain sometimes leans [illegible] forward and maintains that position the pain [illegible].

Many [illegible] an acute [illegible] pain is felt in the arm. Both arms may be involved but the left is the one usually affected. The pain may travel down the arm to the [illegible] and perhaps be accompanied by a feeling of numbness in the fingers.

The sufferer from angina pectoris should place himself in the hands of a competent physician. Strenuous and fatiguing exertion of every kind is prohibited. Medical advice will determine the matter of medication. Occasionally the suffering is so great that the physician may find an opiate is necessary.

The danger of angina pectoris is not in the disease but in the neglect of it. If you suffer from symptoms such as I have described, consult with your doctor. He will outline the necessary treatment and prescribe the medicine.

WASHINGTON, March 25—Former presidents and presidents-to-be [illegible] of the [illegible] mighty [illegible] paraded [illegible] America [illegible] war 20 years ago.

Pledging his services to President Wilson [illegible] was William Jennings Bryan, then past the peak of his political [illegible] but still the Great Commoner of silver-tongued magnetism to millions of admirers.

Al Smith Was Sheriff

Sheriff Alfred E. Smith was coming up fast in New York state politics, but the happy warrior with the brown derby was as yet unknown to the nation at large. Charles Evans Hughes, who a few months before had lost his race for the presidency by a nose, was America's most distinguished lawyer in private practice.

Col. House

The mystery man of the period was Colonel Edward M. House, Wilson's confidential adviser. Preserving inscrutable silence, the little gray man from Texas moved from the White House to the inner offices of potentates and statesmen in Europe as the super-ambassador of the President.

McAdoo Handled Money

Newton Baker, little giant of the Wilson cabinet, was working 16 to 18 hours a day as secretary of war. He rose at all hours of the night to answer calls of a bedside telephone. William G. McAdoo, suave secretary of the treasury, was directing the mobilization of billions of dollars for Uncle Sam's war chest.

The name of Herbert Hoover became known in every household because of his food administration's meatless Tuesdays, wheatless Wednesdays and war bread. Warren Harding of Ohio was just another patriotic senator, neither he nor the nation dreaming that he would be in the presidential race in 1920.

Herbert Hoover

America's Napoleon of Oil, John D. Rockefeller, sr., was already an old man playing golf in Florida. Peace-advocating Henry Ford offered the use of his plant to the government without profit.

Lodge Fought Pacifist

Robert M. LaFollette thundered against war and the munitions makers who had amassed millions selling death-dealing instruments to the Allies. Henry Cabot Lodge, Boston blue blood and aristocrat of the senate's old guard, traded punches with a pacifist in a corridor of the capitol on the day Wilson asked congress [illegible]. Fat Girl Laughs and Grows Slim

Without Starvation Diets or Back Breaking, Bending and Rolling Exercises

Here's a way to get rid of ugly fat that works hand in hand with Nature. Millions of people are losing millions of pounds of flabby flesh and getting back slender figures without the need of starvation diets or back breaking exercises.

Medical science has discovered that one of the causes of too much fat lies in a little gland. Doctors correct this condition by feeding this little gland the substance it lacks—and Marmola Prescription Tablets are based on this same method. Millions are using them with success. They are prepared by a famous medical laboratory. Their formula is published in every package so you know what you are taking.

So don't waste time and money with starvation diets or back breaking exercises. Go to your druggist today and get a box of Marmola. Try this simple easy way to get rid of excess fat.

Mix this with your own grain and make a [illegible] feed you [illegible]
Drop in and let us tell you more about this

Mr John H Guthrie of La Rue Ohio says (Quote)
For forty years I have owned and operated farm lands raised and fed from one hundred to six hundred head of hogs a year
During 1936 I fed and marketed 100 head of hogs These were big type Poland China hogs
These hogs were put on self feeders from weaning time
They were fed corn and all the Old Fort 40% Hog Mix they could eat
At six months these pigs averaged [illegible]0 pounds each They had plenty [illegible] all time These hogs had a finer finish as I have ever seen and were sold to Charles Snowden of Richwood O
I have fed Tankage and another [illegible] HOG MIX but this is the finest bunch of hogs I ever turned off and the cheapest Some of these hogs weighed as high as 26[illegible] pounds but the average [illegible] was 250 pounds I feel that I saved money by feeding this old Fort 40% Hog Mix because the hogs went on the market a month earlier than they have been going in former years
You will find in feeding OLD FORT 40% HOG MIX against Tankage that your pigs will drink considerable more water Up until this time I feel that the OLD FORT 40% HOG MIX has been the most profitable feed that I have ever fed (End Quote)

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood when due to functional kidney disorders may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
